

Living the Sacrifice of Christ: Eucharistic Spirituality through the Ages

Theresa Koernke, IHM, PhD

Saturday, September 28, 9:30am-12:30pm

Suggested Offering: $25

The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of Christian life and spirituality. Like a precious jewel, one cannot appreciate it by looking at it from only one angle or in only one light. One needs to examine it this way, now that, now in this light and then in another to comprehend its true beauty. In this program, participants will reflect on the development of the Eucharist and its influence on Catholic spirituality through the centuries in order to come to a fuller understanding and appreciation of the Sacrament of the Church.

Theresa Koernke, IHM, PhD has taught about the relationship between Baptism, the celebration of the Eucharist, and ordained ministry in graduate schools of theology, including the Washington Theological Union, since her graduation from the University of Notre Dame in 1983.
